

THE EARTH HAS A SOUL

A performance piece
in Jung's own prophetic words

University Press Books
Friday July 21 5:30-7pm

Come hear Jung as a deep ecologist, culture shaman, and nature mystic who foresaw the crisis of our times and prescribed remedies that invite us to return to our species' ancient sustainable ways.

Performed by Meredith Sabini, local author, based on her anthology The Earth Has a Soul: Jung on Nature, Technology, and Modern Life, originally published in 2002 by North Atlantic books and celebrating its fifth printing.

Hosted by Tim McKee, publisher of North Atlantic Books
